

Play a Matching Game

Do you have a little kid in your life that likes to play games? Print out this page, cut out the squares, and play a simple matching game. Lay out all of the squares facedown and take turns looking for pairs. The person who collects the most pairs is the winner! Don't forget that it's kind to let a little kid win!

